

Cruises in Santorini

Santorini is the most popular destination in Greece for cruises. Each year about 900,000 visitors arrive in Santorini to admire the landscape of the unique beauty. Cruise ships anchor in the heart of the caldera and served by the port of Athinios and the bay of Fira.

From the port of Athinios visitors are embarked in busses, mini vans etc while at the bay of Fira you can reach the capital of the island by the cable car, following the 587 steps or at the back of a donkey. From the bay of Fira start the boats trips to the volcano, the surrounding islands and the caldera.
